Transfers of Personal Data

Transfers of Personal Data are governed by Data Protection Agreements between Globality and Globality Customers. In addition, Globality remains committed to the Principles of the EU-U.S. Privacy Shield Framework set forth by the U.S. Department of Commerce regarding the collection and use of Personal Data transferred from the EU. These Principles are (1) notice, (2) consent, (3) accountability for onward transfer, (4) security, (5) data integrity and purpose limitation, (6) access and (7) recourse, enforcement and liability with respect to all Personal Data received from within the EU.

On July 16, 2020, the Court of Justice of the European Union issued a judgment in the Schrems II case invalidating the EU-U.S. Privacy Shield as a compliance mechanism for transfers of personal data from the EU to the U.S. The U.S. Department of Commerce has stated that it will continue to administer the Privacy Shield, and individuals can still file complaints with the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) and/or local supervisory authorities. The FTC can still enforce the Privacy Shield against current and former participating companies. We remain committed to our obligations under the Privacy Shield, and will continue to protect our customers' data in accordance with those obligations. For more information about the Privacy Shield Program, please visit www.privacyshield.gov.

Please contact us at Privacy@globality.com with any questions or concerns relating to the Privacy Shield. If your Personal data was transferred from the EU, UK, or Switzerland to the United States, and you are not satisfied with our response, Globality has agreed to participate in the dispute resolution procedures of the panel established by the EU data protection authorities (DPAs) to resolve disputes pursuant to the EU-US Privacy Shield Principles. A resident of the European Union, UK or Switzerland whose enquiry has not been satisfactorily addressed may contact either the EU DPA panel at http://ec.europa.eu/justice/data-protection/bodies/authorities/third-countries/index_en.htm or the Swiss FDPIC at <https://www.edoeb.admin.ch/edoeb/en/home/the-fdpic/task.html> to resolve disputes pursuant to the EU-US and Swiss-US Privacy Shield Principles.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

We constantly try to improve our Services, so we may change this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any update to Globality's Privacy Notice will be reflected in this section. Please note that if you have opted not to receive legal notice emails from us (or you haven't provided us your email address), those legal notices will still govern your use of the Services, and you are still responsible for reading and understanding the notices.

Globality regularly reviews this Privacy Policy and publishes updates on this web page. This Privacy Policy was last updated on January 2022.
